CHANGING OF THE GUARD? EXXONMOBIL'S NEWLY ACQUIRED CHEMICAL DIVISION IS SET TO DIVEST FROM DIRTY ENERGY.

EXXON

DIVESTING FROM DIRTY ENERGY

Chemical executives want to put their investments out of oil, gas, coal and other industries. But the biggest public investors like CalPERS remain unmoved.

By Debra Doolittle

On April 29, the five trustees board of CalPERS passed a resolution urging ExxonMobil to divest from fossil fuels.

CalPERS is the largest public pension fund in the state, with assets of $100 billion. It is a member of the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS). The board of trustees is made up of five members, including the governor, the attorney general, the state treasurer, the state controller, and the state auditor. The board is responsible for the management of the fund's assets, which include stocks, bonds, and real estate.

ExxonMobil is one of the largest oil and gas companies in the world. It is a member of the Standard & Poor's 500. The company has a long history of investing in fossil fuels, and it is one of the largest contributors to the fossil fuel industry.
